

President: Description of Position

The President position is a key position to the Logos Society board. As the President, you will lead the board in meetings, and act as figurehead for the society.

The President is elected by Logos Members at the Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Time Commitment:

1. Be able to attend the monthly Society meetings, for the elected term.
2. Meetings: committee meetings or volunteer meetings for your chosen event or initiative.
3. Communicate with the Board online: email, Google Docs, etc.

Responsibilities:

1. Be familiar with the Edmonton Logos Society Bylaws & Handbook.
2. Attend and chair all the meetings of the board and all meetings of the general membership
3. Prepare meeting agendas and ensure all board reports are distributed in advance of meetings
4. Liaise with school principals and EPSB on matters concerning the Logos program
5. Stand as an ex-officio member of all committees of the Society
6. Act as a spokesperson for the society
7. Act as signing officer for financial transactions, cheques, and other official documents of The Society
8. Create initiatives and volunteer as the lead on committee(s) of your choosing.
9. Work closely with the Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary.

This is a perfect position for someone who enjoys being a leader. If you have gifts and talents that are currently underutilized, this position will allow you to join with other like-minded parent volunteers to bring events and initiatives to life. Your time and talent will ultimately benefit your children, but it will also allow you to connect and build relationships with other parents in a way that is fulfilling and life giving.
